

A Faith-Based Perspective on the Need for Medicaid Expansion in Maine

Thursday, November 2 | 7pm

Woodfords Congregational Church, U.C.C.

202 Woodford Street, Portland (Ample Parking)

EVENT IS FREE AND PUBLIC IS WELCOME

A panel of Maine clergy who are also medical professionals will provide theological, Scriptural, and doctrinal perspectives from a variety of faith traditions on the importance of expanding Medicaid in Maine. Policy analyst Mitchell Stein will join the panel to provide facts and figures. The Maine Council of Churches, which supports passage of Question 2 on November's ballot, is hosting this event.

Panelists include Clergy and Medical Professionals

- Rev. William M. Barter, Ph.D.
- Rev. Suzanne G. Roberts, MD, MPH
- Rev. Mia Dyson, RN
- Mitchell Stein, Independent Health Policy Consultant
- Rev. Jane Field, Moderator, Executive Director, Maine Council of Churches

FREE EVENT pre registration not required but preferred

For more information and to register visit www.maineCouncilofchurches.org

Like us on Facebook - mainecouncilofchurches

Sponsored by the Maine Council of Churches

Together, we seek common ground for the common good, building a culture of compassion, justice and peace.

