

ANTI-RACISM RESOURCES FROM OUR SEVEN MEMBER DENOMINATIONS

The Episcopal Church has produced “Sacred Ground: A Film-based Dialogue Series on Race & Faith.” <https://episcopalchurch.org/sacred-ground>

The Episcopal Diocese of Maine website has a racial justice page with links to resources and curricula, including “Spirituality and Racial Justice,” an online course taught by Bishop Michael Curry. <https://www.episcopalmaine.org/>

The ELCA has produced resources and curricula including: “Troubling the Waters for the Healing of the Church” (addresses white privilege and internalized notions of white superiority) and “Understanding and Dismantling Racism.” <https://www.elca.org/Resources/Racial-Justice>

The Presbyterian Church (USA) website includes: “Facing Racism: A Churchwide Anti-racism Policy” with links to resources, <https://facing-racism.pcusa.org/> and a Racial Justice Resources page, including the “Matthew 25 21-day Racial Justice Challenge.” <https://www.presbyterianmission.org/ministries/matthew-25/racism/>

Friends General Conference offers “Becoming An Anti-Racist Faith Community,” a collection of resources and reports. <https://www.fgcquaker.org/deepen/help-your-meeting-challenge-racism/becoming-anti-racist-faith-community>

Friends Committee on National Legislation home page has links to articles, resources and curricula. <https://www.fcnl.org/>

American Friends Service Committee has identified anti-racism as a key issue. Their webpage includes links to resources: <https://www.afsc.org/key-issues/issue/creating-inclusive-communities>

The Unitarian Universalist Association website includes a page, “The Journey Toward Wholeness: Path to Anti-Racism,” that includes denomination resolutions and links to resources. <https://www.uua.org/racial-justice/history/jtw>

The United Church of Christ, Maine Conference, has an Anti-Racism Resource Team (<https://www.maineucc.org/ministries/resourceteams/anti-racism/>) and their web page includes a link to an annotated resource bibliography. The national denomination has produced “White Privilege: Let’s Talk—A Resource for Transformational Dialogue,” a curriculum that can be downloaded at: <http://privilege.uccpages.org/>

The United Methodist Church website includes a “United Against Racism” page that has numerous links to resources. <https://www.umc.org/en/how-we-serve/advocating-for-justice/racial-justice/united-against-racism>